TEAMWORK

As we get older, we experience all different kinds of teams. Some work. Some don't work very well at all. As leaders, we can narrow down some of the top characteristics of strong, weak, toxic, and "dream teams" so that we know what we are looking for (and not looking for) in the teams we lead. Think through how, as a leader, you would explain the differences between strong teams, weak teams, toxic teams, and dream teams to those who look to you for guidance. Then answer the questions below.
