

POWERFUL PROJECT

AGES 4-7

MAY 2012

TRUSTWORTHINESS

FIRST & LAST NAME: _____

Trust is a must! Read each story below. Who is showing that they are trustworthy? Who is NOT showing trustworthy choices? Circle YES if you think our friends are showing trustworthy choices and circle NO if you think they are not showing trustworthy choices.

Charlie's mother told him "no cookies before dinner!" Charlie promised that he would wait until after dinner to eat them. He didn't wait. He took 3 cookies from the cookie jar. Is he showing trustworthiness?

YES

NO

Carla went to the library to take out a book. She followed the rules when the librarian was watching. She also followed the rules when the librarian wasn't watching. Did she show trustworthiness?

YES

NO

Tom wanted to win the race. He wanted to win by playing fair. He worked hard and he did not cheat. He came in first! Did he show trustworthiness?

YES

NO

Kenny broke a vase. He told his father that a bird knocked the case off the shelf. He lied. He didn't want to get into trouble. Is he showing trustworthiness?

YES

NO

John and Marlie are friends. Marlie promised John that she would come over for a play-date today at 3pm. Marlie got to John's house at 3pm. Did she show trustworthiness?

YES

NO