

COURTESY

FIRST & LAST NAME: _____

What should our friends say and do to show courtesy? Read the situations below and circle your choice!

Adam needs some help reaching a ball on the top shelf. His older sister can reach it. What do you think he should say to her?

- (1) "Get that ball down for me now!"
- (2) "Excuse me; Could you please help me?"
- (3) "I wish someone would help me!"

Lana's friend Tom sat on her doll by mistake. Lana is very sad. The doll is broken. What should Tom say to Lana?

- (1) "You shouldn't have left the doll on the chair!"
- (2) "Well, I didn't mean it, OK?"
- (3) "I'm so sorry, Lana. I promise I'll fix it."

Ava is eating at a friend's house. Ava's Dad gave her some food that she doesn't think she'll like. What do you think she should she say to him?

- (1) "Thank you!"
- (2) "Yuck! Take it away."
- (3) "Sorry. Do you have something else instead?"

Jake saw his grandfather holding a lot of books. The books looked heavy. What do you think he should she say?

- (1) "Wow. Those look like heavy books!"
- (2) "How can I help you?"
- (3) "Can I have a snack, please?"

I show courtesy when I: _____