School Shoe Collection

I am a Balanced Life Skills Student, and am working to make a difference in my community, and the World!

Balanced Life Skills is joining Think Kindness in their challenge to collect 100,000 pairs of gently used shoes for those in need within our community, and around the world. Please help make a difference from the Feet Up!

1) Look at your closet. What can you spare? What can you share?

2) On _____, bring your bags to school, and

(Day of pickup)

we will pick them up. Please have your bags out by _____

(Time of day)

3) Smile, and Thank Yourself for helping someone in need!
